Chapter 1: It's Only The Beginning

Many of us know someone in our lives who has been touched by the paranormal. Thousands of accounts of isolated visions, sounds, and rare incidents of actual encounters pop up from time to time around the world, usually having to deal with a certain area or dwelling. “I hear strange noises in my house,” or “that old building is haunted,” are statements we witness in our daily lives. These recollections are often brushed off, scientifically explained, or given the old “your imagining things” line. In most cases, not another thought is given to it; but what if the evidence surrounding one individual case were so strong no number of excuses could justify anything else but a real paranormal presence.
